

Wednesday 3rd August
Corick House
11.00am

Panel discussion: Is it time to forget commemorations?

with Denis Bradley, Joan Carson, Bernadette McAliskey, Kevin Myers and Brian Walker (Chair).

*****

2.00pm - 2.40pm Noel Monahan, poet and patron of the WCSS:

'Patrick Kavanagh and Padraic Colum'

3.00pm - 3.40pm Moya Cannon, poet and member of Aosdana, reads from her work

4.00pm

Jack Johnston recalls '25 years of the Carleton Summer School'

*****

Evening Event

Clogher Primary School - newly refurbished as a community centre- exhibition, scavenger hunt, wine and cheese.

Thursday 4th August

- a coach tour of 'Heaney Country' led by Michael Fisher of the Carleton Society.

Leaving from Corick House Hotel
Full details available on the Carleton Society website

THE WILLIAM CARLETON SOCIETY

gratefully acknowledges the financial support of Dungannon and South Tyrone Borough Council during the Summer School's first 25 years and looks forward to the continued support of Mid Ulster Council.

Information accurate at the time of printing.

For latest material please check williamcarletonsociety.org and local media.

A
WARM CLOGHER VALLEY
WELCOME

awaits you at the

William Carleton

International Summer
School

31st July - 4th August 2016

Corick House Hotel and Spa hosts the 25th anniversary celebration of the Life and Work of Tyrone's famous writer

Sunday 31st July Clogher Cathedral

7.30 pm Gemma Prince,
soprano and harper, presents

Sing, Sweet Harp -

the Melodies of Thomas Moore

For the past 25 years the annual

William Carleton Summer School at Clogher has provided a unique opportunity for locals and visitors to encounter the life and work of the famed nineteenth-century writer and commentator William Carleton and of his friends and acquaintances.

This year marks the 25th anniversary of the founding of the Summer School ... we recall absent friends.

Monday 1st August Cricck House Hotel
11.00am

Official opening of the 25th Summer School with representatives from the Mid Ulster Council

Keynote Address:

'Carleton and the 1916 Rising'

Owen Dudley Edwards
Honorary Director WCSS

2.15 pm 'Commemoration'

address by Archbishop Michael Jackson

3.45 pm 'Seamus Heaney's debt to Carleton' Dr Tess Maginnis

4.45 pm 'Carleton's weird wedding'

Frank McHugh

Evening Entertainment 8.00pm

The Valley Hotel - Fivemiletown

The Murley Brass Ensemble with The Swing Gals

Tuesday 2nd August Cricck House Hotel
10.30am 'Carleton's Dialect'
Seamas Mac Annaidh

11.30am

'The Fight for Carleton's Pension'

Michael Fisher

Lunch

2.00pm 'The Battle of the Somme'

Kevin Myers

4.00 pm 'Larry McFarland's Wake'

a dramatised reading of Carleton's short story devised by Liam Foley and the Carleton Players
*****

Evening Entertainment

Cricck House Hotel

7.00pm

The Bloomfield String Quartet

7.30 pm 'Homemade Food with

Traditional Produce'

a Cook with Norah demonstration by Norah Brown of Grange Lodge

