

Mon. 4th August	11.00 Official Opening	11.30-12.45 Tom Devine Keynote Address Famine in Ireland and Scotland: Parallels and Contrasts	L U N C H	2.00-3.00 Bryan Gallagher A Sideways Look at Carleton	3.00-3.30 Malcolm Duffey Dr Alexander Jackson and the Aughnacloy Alms House	3.45-5.00 Johanne Devlin-Trew Leaving the North: Migration and Memory, Northern Ireland 1921-2011	D I N E R	8.30 Table Quiz 9.30 Cup O’Joe Bluegrass & Gypsy Jazz in Corick House
Tue. 5th August	10.30-11.30 Larry Geary Social Life in Pre-Famine Ireland (through the prism of Carleton’s prose)	11.45-12;45 Paddy Fitzgerald Famine in the Context of the Ulster-Scots Tradition		2.00-2.45 Noel Monahan Poetry Reading Iggy McGovern	3.00-4.00 Des McMahon PRHA A conversation with Aiden Fee	4.00-5.00 Audience Discussion Reflections on and Memories of Seamus Heaney		7.00 A Carleton Walk 9.00 The Mckennas Folk Music in Augher Hall
Wed. 6th August	10.30-11.30 Seamus Mallon A Life in Politics	11:45- 12.00 Gordon Brand Irish Literary Figures in the First World War		2.00- 3.00 Owen Dudley Edwards Literary Links between Scotland and Ireland	3:15-4-15 Paul Clements Richard Hayward Writer, Actor, Singer Sam Craig Irish Artists and The First World War	4.15-5.00 Liam Foley A “radio play” based on Wild Goose Lodge followed by an Audience Discussion		8.00 A Concert Murley Silver Band in the “Forth Chapel”

Thur. 7th August, 10.30, The Carleton Tour — On William Carleton’s Home Ground